ILLINOIS:

1. The definition of Pre-existing Condition in the DEFINITIONS section is deleted and replaced with the following:

"Pre-existing Condition" means any disease, illness, sickness, malady or condition of an Insured, or Traveling Companion, or the Insured's and/or Traveling Companion's Family Member, or the Insured's Business Partner for which:

Medical advice, diagnosis, consultation, or treatment was received from a Legally Qualified Physician within 24-months prior to the effective date of coverage; or Symptoms existed within 12-months prior to the effective date of coverage which, in the opinion of a Legally Qualified Physician, would indicate that the disease, illness, sickness, malady or condition probably began and manifested itself prior to the effective date of coverage and would cause a reasonable person to seek diagnosis, care, or treatment.

2. The following statement is added to GENERAL CLAIM PROVISIONS, the section titled Time of Payment Of Claims:

All claims will be paid within 30-days after receipt of due written proof of loss. If we have not paid the claim within this timeframe, we will pay interest at the rate of 9% from the 30th day after receipt of all necessary proof of loss, to the date of payment. We will not pay interest amounting to less than one dollar.

Except as stated herein, this Amendatory Endorsement does not change coverage in any other way and is subject to all provisions, terms, and conditions of the Policy. If there is a conflict between the Policy and this Amendatory Endorsement, the terms of this Amendatory Endorsement will govern.

KANSAS – Under the General Provisions, "Subrogation" does not apply to reimbursement of medical, surgical, hospital or funeral expenses. "Legal Actions" is amended to read "5-years". The "Excess Insurance" Provision is deleted in its entirety.

"Mental or Nervous Conditions" means disorders specified in the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders, fourth edition, (DSM-IV, 1994) of the American Psychiatric Association but shall not include conditions not attributable to mental disorders that are a focus of attention or treatment (DSM-IV, 1994).

The definition of Usual and Customary means, for charges incurred in the United States:

a) charges and fees for medical services or supplies that are the lesser of: the usual charge by the provider for the service or supply given; or the average charges for the service or supply in the area where the service or supply is received; and b) Treatment and medical service that is reasonable in relationship to the service or supply given and the severity of the condition.

Usual and Customary charges are calculated using the national database in Ingenix, Inc. or similar provider. Ingenix and similar providers update the data every 6 months.

For Charges incurred outside the United States, payment is based on billed charges that the Company receives proof of the service or supply being given.

The definition of Family Member is amended to delete the reference to Traveling Companion, as the Traveling Companion is not eligible as a Family Member.

The General Limitation and Exclusions section is amended to delete the reference to Traveling Companion as such person is not eligible as a Family Member.

Subject to the terms, limitations, and conditions of the Policy, the Company will cover the following services. The Company will provide coverage for services for treatment of Mental and Nervous Disorders for inpatient confinement for up to 45 days of such Inpatient Confinement per Calendar Year as long as the insurance is in effect on a day of confinement. Inpatient benefits are limited to the Allowable Expense and subject to any deductibles, co-payments and maximum benefit limitations. In addition, the Company will provide coverage for outpatient services for Mental and Nervous Disorders. Outpatient mental health expenses will be covered at 100% of the first $100 incurred, 80% of the next $100 incurred and 50% for the next $1,640 incurred in a calendar year up to a lifetime maximum of $7,500. Outpatient benefits are limited to the Allowable Expense and subject to any deductibles, co-payments and maximum benefit limitations.

The expense must be incurred while the policy is in force with respect to the covered person or it is not considered an Allowable Expense. The Mental and Nervous Disorder must first be diagnosed while the policy is in force with respect to the covered person and the purpose of the travel may not be for medical treatment of such Mental and Nervous Disorder. Coverage ends on the date the policy terminates.

Mental and Nervous Disorders means the following: Schizophrenia, schizoaffective disorder, schizophreniform disorder, brief reactive psychosis, paranoid or delusional disorder, atypical psychosis, major affective disorders (bipolar and major depression), cyclothymic and dysthymic disorders, obsessive compulsive disorder, panic disorder, pervasive developmental disorder, including autism, attention deficit disorder and attention deficit hyperactive disorder as such terms are defined in the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders, fourth edition, (DSM-IV, 1994) of the American psychiatric association but shall not include conditions not attributable to a mental disorder that are a focus of attention or treatment.

Diabetes Coverage

Subject to the terms, limitations, and conditions of the Policy, the Company will cover the following services. The Company shall provide coverage for medically necessary equipment and supplies, limited to hypodermic needles and supplies used exclusively with diabetes management and outpatient self-management training and education, including medical nutrition therapy, for the treatment of insulin dependent diabetes, insulin-using diabetes, gestational diabetes and noninsulin using diabetes if prescribed by Physician. The Company shall also provide coverage for diabetes outpatient self-management training and education when provided by a certified, registered or licensed health care professional with expertise in diabetes. The coverage for outpatient self-management training and education shall be required only if ordered by a Physician legally authorized to prescribe such services and the diabetic: (1) is treated at a program approved by the American diabetes association; (2) is treated by a person certified by the National Certification Board for Diabetes Educators; or (3) is, as to nutritional education, treated by a licensed dietitian pursuant to a treatment plan authorized a Physician.

The service must be rendered while the covered person is covered under the Policy or it is not considered an Allowable Expense. The benefit is subject to any deductible and maximum benefit limitations required by the Policy. Diabetes must first be diagnosed while the Policy is in force with respect to the covered person and the purpose of the travel may not be for medical treatment of diabetes. Coverage ends on the date the Policy terminates.

General Anesthesia for Dental Surgery

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy, the Company will cover the following services. The Company shall provide coverage for the medically necessary administration of general anesthesia and Hospital charges for dental care provided to the following Covered Persons:

- a) a child five years of age and under; or
- b) a person who is severely disabled; or
- c) a person has a medical or behavioral condition that requires hospitalization or general anesthesia when dental care is provided.

The service must be rendered while the covered person is covered under this Policy or it is not considered an Allowable Expense. The benefit is subject to any deductible and maximum benefit limitations required by the Policy. The dental work must first be diagnosed while the Policy is in force with respect to the covered person and the purpose of the travel must not be for dental treatment. Coverage ends on the date the Policy terminates.

Off Label Prescription Drugs for Cancer Treatment

Subject to the terms, limitations, and conditions of the Policy, the Company will cover off label prescription drugs as follows. The Company will not exclude coverage of a prescription drug for cancer treatment on the grounds the prescription drug has not been approved by the federal food and drug administration for that covered indication if the prescription drug is recognized for treatment of the indication in one of the standard reference compendia or in substantially accepted peer-reviewed medical literature. The prescribing physician shall submit to the Company documentation supporting the proposed off-label use or uses prior to it being covered.

The service must be rendered while the covered person is covered under this Policy or it is not considered an Allowable Expense. The benefit is subject to any deductible and maximum benefit limitations required by the Policy. The cancer must first be diagnosed while the Policy is in force with respect to the covered person and the purpose of the travel must not be to obtain treatment for such cancer or to obtain off label prescription drugs for such cancer treatment. Coverage ends on the date the Policy terminates.

LOUISIANA - Under the General Provisions section, the "Excess Insurance" Provision is deleted in its entirety.

The provision entitled Concealment and Misrepresentation is amended to read:

Concealment and Misrepresentation: The entire coverage will be void, if when applying for coverage, You made a fraudulent statement or misrepresentation with the intent to deceive. Fraud or misrepresentation with the intent to deceive after coverage is in force is grounds for cancellation and grounds to deny coverage for benefits related to such fraud, concealment, or misrepresentation. Coverage for other benefits will continue until the cancellation is effective.

The provision entitled Subrogation is amended to read:

Subrogation: If we make any payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment is made has a right to recover damaged from another, the company shall be subrogated to that right. However, the Company's right to recover is subordinate to Your right to be fully compensated.

The provision entitled Legal Actions is amended to read:

Legal Actions: No legal action for a claim can be brought against us until 45 days after we receive proof of loss. No legal action for a claim can be brought against us more than 3 years after the time required for giving proof of loss. This 3-year time period is extended from the date proof of loss is filed and the date the claim is denied in whole or in part.

MAINE: The exclusion related to Terrorist Events is deleted in its entirety.

MINNESOTA: Under the General Provisions section, the "Excess Insurance" Provision is deleted in its entirety.

MISSISSIPPI: The provision entitled "Legally Qualified Physician" is amended to read:

"Legally Qualified Physician" means a health care practitioner or a Christian Science Practitioner (a) other than an Insured, a Traveling Companion or a Family Member: (b) practicing within the scope of his or her license; and (c) recognized as a health care practitioner in the place where the services are rendered.

The provision entitled "Notice of Claim" is amended so that the "20 days" notice reads "30 days".

The provision entitled "Time of Payment of Claims" is amended to read:

Benefits payable for any loss will be paid within 45 days after receipt of due written proof of such loss. Benefits due are overdue if not paid within 45 days after the Company or We receive proof of loss and the necessary information to adjudicate the claim and the necessary medical information and other information essential for Us to administer any coordination of benefits and subrogation provisions. If such information is not supplied as to the entire claim, the amount supported by reasonable proof is overdue if not paid within 45 days after the Company receives such proof. Any part or all of the remainder of the claim that is later supported by such proof is overdue if not paid within 45 days after the Company receives such proof. To calculate the extent to which any benefits are overdue, payment shall be treated as made on the date a draft or other valid instrument was placed in the United States mail to the last known address of the claimant or beneficiary in a properly addressed, postpaid envelope, or if not so posted, on the date of delivery.

If the claim is not denied for valid and proper reasons by the end of such period of 45 days, the Company must pay You interest on accrued benefits at the rate of one and one-half percent (1 ½ %) per month on the amount of such claim until it is finally settled or adjudicated.

In the event the Company fails to pay benefits when due, the person entitled to such benefits may bring action to recover such benefits, any interest that may accrue as provided above and any other damages as may be allowable by law.

The provision entitled "Subrogation" is amended to read:

Subrogation: To the extent the Company pays for a loss suffered by You, the Company will take over the rights and remedies You had relating to the loss. This is known as subrogation. You must help the Company to preserve its rights against those responsible for the loss. This may involve signing any papers and taking any other steps the Company may reasonably require. If the Company takes over Your rights, You must sign an appropriate subrogation form supplied by the Company. No subrogation will occur until You have been made whole for your damages.
